Chapter 6

A Quest : Plants

Answer the following questions to learn more about plants. Pick answers from the Help Card :

1. Which country you find the world's biggest rainforest?
   _____
2. Which insectivorous plant can trap and consume a fly as well as a small frog?
   _____
3. Which important cereal crop is grown in shallow water?
   _____
4. What is the seed of an Oak tree called?
   _____
5. Which fruit is a great source of Vitamin C and helps in preventing a cold?
   _____
6. Which machine is used to cut the wheat crop and separate grains from stalks right there in the field?
   _____
7. What are the pipe like tissues, which carry water in a plant called?
   _____
8. Which tree is a national symbol of Canada?
   _____
9. What are the plants that take their food from other plants called?
   _____
10. Which is the world's oldest flower that still exists?
    _____

BOOST UP

The Oleander or Neruim Oleander is considered as a very poisonous plant. A single leaf of this plant contains enough poison to kill a human child.

Help Card

Parasitic plants, Ambarella, Rice, Maple, Combine Harvester, Orange, Venus Flytrap, Brazil, Xylem, Acron.

LIVEWORKSHEETS