Grammar Ex. > Possessive Adjectives II

A. Look at the images. Use his, her, or their to complete each sentence. You can use them more than once.

These are my grandparents, Rachel and Zac.

1. _____ hair is gray.
2. _____ dress is blue.
3. _____ new brown jacket is cool.
4. _____ eyebrows are dark gray.
5. _____ eyes are blue.
6. _____ sweater is green.
7. _____ brown shoes are comfortable.
8. _____ walking sticks are useful.
9. _____ nose is small.
10. _____ glasses are black.

B. Complete the sentences below using its, your, my, or our. You can use them more than once.

- I have an adorable cat. (1) _____ name is Amigo.
- Simon and I play football, and (2) _____ teams compete in different tournaments.
- Hi guys. Please, give me (3) _____ homework now.
- I don't eat fast food. (4) _____ diet is low in sugar and fats.
- (5) _____ parents always give us presents at Christmas.
- (6) _____ siblings and I love doing sports. (7) _____ favorite sport is basketball.
- Colombia is a beautiful place. (8) _____ fauna and flora are wonderful.
- Excuse me, miss. I wonder if (9) _____ parents will attend our meeting.

C. Read each sentence carefully. Find the possessive adjectives (my, our, its, his, her, their, your) that are not used properly. Write the correct answers in the box on the right. There is one example for you.

Eg.: Look at those dogs. ~~Your~~ tail is certainly long.	their
1. Our TV is not working well. I think his display is broken.
2. Angelica does not like marshmallows. Its flavor is too sweet for her.
3. Carlos lent me his pencil, for I left his pencil case at home.
4. My friends and I attended a concert. Then, his parents took us home.
5. Mrs. Chan has two pets. Your cats are adorable.
6. Moses can't play any instrument well, yet my talent is to write music.
7. Hi, everybody. Open our books on page 27. Start doing the exercises in group.

Level A2+

Authored by Andrés Barón-Ávila
MA Education and Technology – UCL – IOE

LIVEWORKSHEETS