GORILLA

Gorillas are the of all the primates. A male gorilla can be 180 centimeters tall and can weigh Gorillas are very strong but they do not often fight. In fact they are animals. Gorillas live in small family groups of about 15. In a group there is one, older male, some, and a few females with their babies. They move slowly around a large area of jungle leaves and bushes. In some ways gorillas are very like humans. When they are, they laugh and wave their arms. When they are, they beat their chests. When they are sad, they cry. But they quietly, without any tears. Unfortunately, people hunt and kill gorillas. They also cut down and burn their trees. There are now only about left in the world.
