Noun of Gender Exercise 20

Instructions:

1. Read each sentence and identify the underlined noun.
2. Determine the gender of the underlined noun (masculine, feminine, or neutral).
3. Write "M" for masculine, "F" for feminine, or "N" for neutral next to the sentence.

Examples:

1. The large king wore a golden crown.
2. The beautiful queen ruled with kindness.
3. The red table stood in the center of the room.

Here are 20 sentences for your exercise:

1. The brave knight rescued the princess.
2. The gentle nurse cared for the patients.
3. The happy child played with their toys.
4. The strong lion roared in the jungle.
5. The graceful dancer moved across the stage.
6. The bright sun shone in the sky.
7. The handsome prince fell in love with the princess.
8. The clever detective solved the mystery.
9. The comfortable chair invited relaxation.
10. The hungry wolf howled at the moon.
11. The talented artist painted a masterpiece.
12. The wide ocean stretched as far as the eye could see.
13. The courageous hero saved the day.
14. The wise teacher guided her students.
15. The delicious cake was a tempting treat.
16. The grumpy old man sat on a park bench.
17. The cheerful young woman skipped down the street.
18. The spacious house had plenty of room.
19. The fierce dragon guarded its treasure.
20. The talented writer crafted a captivating story.

Bonus:

Can you think of 5 more sentences with nouns and identify their genders?

.....

LIVEWORKSHEETS