

Fill-in-the-Blank Exercise: Using Verbs of Preference and Correct Verb Forms

Objective:

To practice using verbs of preference (love, like, hate, enjoy, prefer) in affirmative sentences, negative sentences, and questions, ensuring correct verb forms.

Instructions:

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verbs: love, like, hate, enjoy, or prefer, and the correct form of the following verbs. Pay attention to the tense and subject-verb agreement.

1. She _____ (prefer) _____ (eat) fruit for breakfast.
2. They _____ (hate) _____ (study) for exams.
3. _____ you _____ (like) _____ (watch) documentaries?
4. I _____ (love) _____ (spend) time with my grandparents.
5. He _____ (not enjoy) _____ (run) long distances.
6. We _____ (prefer) _____ (have) dinner at home rather than going out.
7. I _____ (not like) _____ (wake) up early during the weekends.
8. _____ she _____ (enjoy) _____ (play) the piano?
9. They _____ (love) _____ (go) on camping trips.
10. He _____ (prefer) _____ (drink) water over soda.
11. We _____ (hate) _____ (wait) in traffic.
12. _____ she _____ (like) _____ (paint) in her free time?
13. I _____ (prefer) _____ (take) the train to work.
14. She _____ (not love) _____ (clean) the house every day.
15. _____ you _____ (enjoy) _____ (bake) cookies?