

• Read about Alex

Alex is an American boy. He lives with his family in a modern house in Los Angeles, California. He is thirteen years old. He has got a brother, David, and a sister, Emma.

He starts his day at half past seven. He gets up and has breakfast. He usually has a sandwich and orange juice. At a quarter to eight he catches the bus to go to school. Classes begin at half past eight. He always has lunch at the school canteen at half past twelve.

After school, he walks home. When he arrives, he plays with his dog Rufus and then he does his homework. After dinner, the family watches a movie or a series in the living room. Sometimes, they play a board game or cards. Alex never plays videogames on school days.

On the weekend, Alex always plays sports at the club with his friends. They are very good at sports, especially volleyball. They have a lot of fun together. On Saturday evenings, Alex and his friends go to the cinema.

1. Read the sentences about Alex and write TRUE or FALSE. There is one example (0)

- (0) Alex lives in California, USA. TRUE
- (1) He lives with his parents and his 2 brothers. _____
- (2) He wakes up at 7:30. _____
- (3) He goes to school by bus. _____
- (4) After school, he does his homework and, then, he plays with Rufus. _____
- (5) Alex goes to the cinema with his family on Saturdays. _____