Talking about the Future - Plans / Promises / Predictions - Which tense do we need?

Hoping for the Future

✓ We use hope when something is possible or likely to happen:

- I hope we'll see each other again.
- I hope we see each other again.
- I hope it doesn't rain tomorrow.
- I hope I can see you when I visit Tokyo next year.
- Mike hopes he can study English at INA next year.
- Noa hopes she gets a master's degree soon.

We use wish when something is not possible or not likely to happen.

- I wish I were taller!
- I wish you didn't live so far away.
- I wish I could fly.
