4. Read the following text:

First, you need a tennis racket. This is what you use to hit the tennis ball. The game happens on a big area called a court. There's a net in the middle of the court that divides it into two sides.

To start playing, you need to do a serve. That's when you hit the ball to start the game. If your serve is really good and your opponent can't hit it back, it's called an ace!

In tennis, matches are made up of smaller parts called sets. Each set has some games. To win a game, you need to get points. When the score is zero, it's called love. It's just a funny word for zero!

Sometimes, during a game, players hit the ball back and forth really quickly without letting it touch the ground. We call this a volley. It's a fun part of the game!

Remember, tennis is all about having fun while you play. Whether you're with friends or watching a match on TV, there's always something new to learn!
