Directions: Let's make a paragraph today.

_____

Write the title here

By: _____

In the story, Rita is a girl that is a real stickler for the rules, she likes a fair game. Rita showed fairness by playing the game without cheating. If you were Rita, what will you do to show fairness? In school, during group games you notice that one of your classmate is going ahead of everyone to have his turn, what will you do? During summer vacation, you went to a resort and as you line up for the slides you saw that one of the kids are skipping the lines, what will you do? In the park, one of your friends ask you to play with them, as you play your team is winning however, you saw that your one of your teammates is telling the other team to let your team win, what will you do?

_____

_____

_____

_____

In the story, Ken was the classroom's snack helper and he was the best at making sure everyone got their fair share. If you were Ken, what will you do to show fairness?

_____

_____

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS