Amelia Earhart was born on July 24, 1897, in Kansas, USA. She was the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic. She flew for the first time in 1920. From that moment, she knew she wanted to fly. She took flying lessons and she bought a plane. It was bright yellow and she gave it the nickname "Canary." In 1928, George P. Putman invited her to fly across the Atlantic Ocean. She wasn't the pilot at that time, but she was the first woman to cross the ocean by plane. Four years later, she flew across the Atlantic on a solo flight. She flew from Canada to Paris, France.

After that, she wanted to fly around the world. On July 2, 1937, Amelia Earhart disappeared on a flight over the Pacific Ocean. No one saw her or her plane again.

Hi, Bob!

How are you? I was born in Hawaii. I'm American. I live with my mom and my dad and my pet dog, Trevor. Where were you born? Where do you live? Do you have a big family? Do you have any pets?

Yesterday, I went surfing at the beach with my cousin. Do you like the beach?

Next week, I'm going to start taking guitar lessons. My parents gave me a guitar for my birthday. Do you play a musical instrument? Well, I need to go. My family is going to have dinner now.

Sincerely,
Toby
