My brother buys a computer magazine once a month because he's really into IT. I don't buy any magazines because they're expensive, and I don't get too much pocket money.

My dad gets a newspaper every day and he reads it in the evening. He doesn't like watching the news on TV, but my mum does. They're both doctors and they regularly read some medical magazines. My mum also enjoys reading magazines about healthy food and cooking.

We all like reading film reviews. There are some reviews in the newspaper which my dad buys every day, but we prefer reading about films online because you can see other people's opinions.
