

1. Match.

degrees Celsius	• °F		• chef
thermometer	• °C		• doctor
degrees Fahrenheit	• 		• weather forecast

2. Match.

17.5 °C	•	Seventy-two degrees Fahrenheit.
17.6 °C	•	Twenty-seven degrees Celsius.
72 °F	•	Seventeen point six degrees Celsius.
27 °C	•	Seventeen point five degrees Celsius.

3. Read and underline the correct word.

- Most countries use degrees Celsius / Fahrenheit to measure temperature.
- When the temperature gets hotter, the liquid moves down / up the tube.
- Our normal body temperature is 37 °C / 37 °F.
- We can see air / water temperature on weather forecasts.
- Chefs / Doctors use a thermometer to check food temperature.

4. Complete the text.

screen Fahrenheit Digital Celsius tube

We use a thermometer to measure how hot or cold something is. Some thermometers have a _____ with liquid in. The liquid moves up and down depending on how hot or cold it is. _____ thermometers show the temperature on a _____. Most parts of the world measure temperature in degrees _____ but some still measure it in degrees _____.