1. Write the correct preposition.

1. She's always been enthusiastic _____ learning new languages.
2. The restaurant has a reputation _____ serving the best sushi in town.
3. It's always fun to have a laugh _____ old friends.
4. He tried to discreetly point _____ the famous actor without drawing too much attention.
5. He has a passion _____ painting, spending hours in his studio every weekend.
6. The investors hoped to turn a profit _____ their real estate venture within a year.
7. She decided to take advantage _____ the sale and bought a new laptop.
8. He is fluent _____ three languages, including Spanish and Mandarin.
9. She plans to study _____ university next year, majoring in biology.

2. Complete the sentences with the phrase from the box in the correct form.

grasp	have a laugh with	offended	rock up	stint	to gossip	turn a profit on

1. The startup managed to _____ their new app within just six months.
2. During his _____ as a waiter, he learned a lot about customer service.
3. She quickly managed to _____ the complex concepts of quantum physics.
4. Every Friday night, we gather to _____ our neighbors, sharing jokes and stories.
5. She decided to _____ to the party fashionably late.
6. He was deeply _____ by the rude comment made during the meeting.
7. They often gathered in the break room to _____ about office affairs.

LIVEWORKSHEETS