Ken What's your favorite tradition from when you were a child?

Kerstin Hmm ... let's see ... I'd say Santa Lucia's Day.

Ken Santa Lucia's Day? I've never heard of it. Is it a Swedish festival?

Kerstin Yeah. It 's celebrated (celebrate) on December thirteenth. It's the darkest time of winter, and Santa Lucia is considered (consider) to be the symbol of light. So, it reminds everyone that the days will get longer and sunnier after December.

Ken Oh, I see. So what do you do to celebrate?

Kerstin Well, in schools, for example, one girl chooses (choose) to be Santa Lucia. She wears a white dress, and a crown of candles is placed (place) on her head. Then the Santa Lucia song is sung (sing) by everyone. And in some families, the girl serves her parents breakfast in bed. That is not done (not do) in all homes, though.

Ken So, is there a special kind of food that is eaten (eat), or anything?

Kerstin Yeah, they have these sweet buns that are made (make) with spices. They are usually served (serve) with coffee – or juice for the kids.

Ken Huh. It sounds nice.
