

I. Identify the sentence that correctly uses "have" or "get" as a causative.

1. A. She had her hair cut yesterday
B. She has her hair cut yesterday.
2. A. We get our house painted every year.
B. We get our house painting every year.
3. A. They had their car wash by professionals.
B. They had their car washed by professionals.
4. A. He gets his teeth checked regularly.
B. He get his teeth check regularly.
5. A. I have my documents printed at the office.
B. I have my documents print at the office.

II. Select the correct answer

1. Last week, I _____ my phone _____ by a technician.
 - a. have / fix
 - b. had / fix
 - c. get / fixed
 - d. got / fixed

2. She always _____ her groceries _____ to her house on Fridays.

- a. got / deliver
- b. get / delivered
- c. have / deliver
- d. has / delivered

3. They _____ their house _____ next month.

- a. have / paint
- b. are getting / painted
- c. got / painted
- d. have / painted

4. Yesterday, John _____ his car _____ at the new car wash.

- a. had / washed
- b. got / wash
- c. has / washed
- d. get / washed

5. We _____ our tickets _____ online for the concert next weekend.

- a. gets / booked
- b. had / booked
- c. will get / booked

d. have / booked