

Let's practice!

Read the story carefully. Fill in the blanks using the correct form of "as... as" with the adjectives provided. Pay attention to the context to decide whether the sentence should be affirmative, negative, or interrogative.

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A FOODIE

Once upon a time, there was a foodie named Alex. Alex believed that breakfast was (important) _____ lunch. Every morning, Alex made a smoothie that was (delicious) _____ a milkshake.

One day, Alex decided to try a new restaurant. The salad there was (fresh) _____ the one at Alex's favorite café. However, the soup was (not/tasty) _____ Alex expected.

Alex met a friend named Jamie for lunch. Jamie's sandwich looked (big) _____ Alex's. Alex asked, "(your sandwich/healthy) _____ mine?"

In the evening, Alex cooked dinner at home. The pasta turned out (good) _____ the pasta from the restaurant. But the dessert was (not/sweet) _____ Alex's usual recipe.

Alex wondered, "(my cooking/skillful) _____ a chef's?" By the end of the day, Alex realized that experimenting with food was (exciting) _____ eating out.