Business Idioms 1 and 2

TO GO CRAZY ABOUT SOMETHING

TO BE VERY BUSY

PEOPLE WHO WORK HARD HAVE MORE CHANCES TO SUCCEED IN LIFE

IT'S BETTER TO HAVE SOMETHING JUST IN CASE THAN TO REGRET FOR NOT HAVING IT

IF YOU EAT HEALTHY FOOD, YOU WON'T GET SICK

IF YOU DO SOMETHING IN A HURRY, YOU MIGHT NEED TO DO IT AGAIN

AVOID FORMING JUDGMENTS BASED ON APPEARANCE

TO SHOW THAT YOU'RE READY FOR A HARD WORK

An apple a day...
...keeps the doctor way.

Roll up...
...the sleeves.

Busy...
...as a bee.

The early bird...
...gets the worm.

Haste makes...
...waste.

Don't judge...
...a book by its cover.

Better safe...
...than sorry.

To go...
...bananas.

TO CHALLENGE THE COMPETITION TO BE BETTER

TO BE CREATIVE, THINK OTHER THAN THE OBVIOUS.

TO RESTART FROM ZERO

TO HAVE TOO MANY RESPONSIBILITIES

TO BECOME KNOWN BECAUSE PEOPLE TALK ABOUT YOU

TO LOSE FOCUS

NOT ABLE TO ACT OR REACT

TO INFER WHAT IS BEYOND LITERAL

To get...
...sidetracked.

To wear...
...too many hats.

To think...
...out of the box.

Word...
...of mouth.

To raise...
...the bar.

To read...
...between the lines.

Back to...
...square one.

Hands are...
...tied.