

FIVE WAYS TO MAKE NEW FRIENDS

Everyone friends. We these principles:

1. ^{1 want / make} friendly to everyone you meet. Take advantage of every opportunity. ^{2 suggest / follow}
2. Even if you ^{3 decide / be} interest in at least one new person every day. ^{4 not feel like / socialize} every new acquaintance ^{5 learn / show} a real friend, but if you ^{6 not expect} new friends, this is a good way to start. ^{7 become}
3. ^{8 would like / meet} new acquaintances questions about themselves. People ^{9 be sure / ask} about themselves. ^{10 enjoy / talk}
4. ^{11 avoid / talk} too much about yourself. ^{12 practice / ask} people questions about their interests and opinions before you ^{13 begin / tell} them about your own.
5. If you ^{14 decide / get together} later, ^{15 plan / do} something that you both like. If your new friend has different interests from yours, say you ^{16 not mind / try} something new.
