

Choose the correct option in each case:

Windows 10

It runs (1) well / good on most hardware and provides a user-friendly interface. Users have (2) quick / quickly adapted to its features and updates. People find they can (3) easily / easy use it for both work and entertainment.

Windows 11

It was introduced as having several upgrades. It aims to perform more (4) strongly / strong than its predecessor. Its interface is redesigned to be more modern and (5) visual / visually appealing. However, some older hardware may not support Windows 11, meaning it could run (6) bad / badly on such devices.