

University life in Britain

- In Britain, many university students live away from home. This gives them more freedom and the opportunity to meet lots of new people, but can also be difficult for some students who are not used to being on their own and have never learnt to cook for themselves or even iron their clothes. In their first year, most students choose to live in student accommodation, which is sometimes on campus. After that, they tend to rent a flat or house with other students.
- Part of student life is about understanding the importance of managing your money carefully: tuition fees, loans you may have taken out, money for food, and payments you have to make for your living costs, for electricity, etc. For this reason, many students find part-time jobs.
- At university, you can often choose when you want to study, but you need to attend lectures, do your assignments on time, and plan your revision period before exams.

SPOTLIGHT be used to (doing) sth and be accustomed to (doing) sth

If you are used to (doing) something, you know it well because you have seen, heard, done, etc. it a lot. Be accustomed to (doing) something is a synonym, but less common and more formal.

- I live in England so I'm used to bad weather.
- My brother doesn't have a car so he is used to walking.
- I live with my family so I'm not used to cooking for myself.

Don't confuse this structure with used to + infinitive, which is for talking about something that you did in the past but don't do now.

- I used to be in the army, but I'm a teacher now.
