Identify the following sentences as Simple, Compound or Complex.

1.She stretched out the corners of her coat.

2. The house was built into the rock of the mountain, and the door was polished stone.

3. She screamed, pulling her coat up over her face, and dropped to the ground again, landing on her hands and knees in the snow.

4.Odile rubbed some snow into her eyes to make sure she was awake.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5.She had nobody else.

6.The wind caught her coat and tossed her upwards.

7.It had been pouring with rain all day but the storm-drains were coping with the streams of water.

8. ‘They know more than they let on.’

9. You can have fruit or yoghurt for breakfast.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

10. ‘Never let it go out.’

LIVEWORKSHEETS