READING: Grow your own salad!

Read the advice about Growing your Own Salad. Put the comments in the correct order.

Now, watch your plants grow.

Next, plant your seeds in a sunny place and water them twice a week.

Finally, get your lettuce, a tomato, and an onion from the garden.
Wash them, and enjoy your fresh salad!

Then, make sure you have space for each type of plant.

First, go to your local store and buy seeds for lettuce, tomatoes, onions, and other salad favorites.
