

Indefinite Pronouns: Correct or Incorrect?

I. Read each sentence and decide if it is correct or incorrect. If it is incorrect, write the correct version.

1. Everyone left their jackets at the entrance.
2. She looked everywhere for her glasses but couldn't find them.
3. Anyone took my book from the table.
4. Is there anyone here who knows the answer?
5. He didn't find nobody in the house.
6. Anybody can participate in the contest.
7. I want to go somewhere quiet this weekend.
8. Something needs to bring their own lunch.
9. She didn't buy nothing at the store.
10. Something smells really good in the kitchen.
11. There is no one at the door.
12. Did you see somebody interesting at the event?
13. Nowhere in the city was open late at night.
14. He wants to tell everybody the good news.
15. They didn't hear anyone knocking.
16. Nobody knows what happened to the missing file.
17. Let's go somewhere to find the best price.
18. Anyone left their bag on the bus.
19. She can't find her phone anywhere.
20. There isn't somebody who can help with the project.