

ANNOUNCEMENT

To all students of Jakarta Public High School 1,

We hereby inform you that there will be a blood donation event organized by Palang Merah Indonesia (PMI) at our school. This event will be held on:

Day/Date	: Monday, July 15, 2024
Time	: 09:00-15:00 WIB
Place	: School Hall

This event is open to 11th and 12th grade students who meet the blood donor requirements. Let's show our caring spirit by participating in this event.

Thank you.

Regards,
Principal

Warming Up!

QUESTIONS

1. When will the event be held?

2. Who held the event?

3. When and where the event will be held?

4. Who will be required to participate the event?

HOTS QUESTIONS (Extra Points)

5. Why is it important to hold a blood donation event at school?

6. If you are a 10th grade student and want to participate, what can you do to support this event?

7. How can you help spread information about this event to your friends?

8. If you were the principal, what other steps would you take to increase student participation in this event?

ANSWER

1. The event will be held at school is a blood donation.
2. The event is organized by the PMI
3. The event will be held on Monday, 15 July 2024, from 9 to 15 WIB, at the School Hall.
4. 11th and 12th grade students who meet the blood donor requirements can participate in the event.
5. (expected answer) Blood donation is important.
6. (expected answer) We may support in other ways, such as help spread the word about the event to our friends.
7. (expected answer) We can spread information about the event through social media or word of mouth or creating digital graphics announcement.
8. (expected answer) To increase student participant, I could give them with certificates or badges to motivate more students to participate.