

3

Have some more

Introducing the topic

Vocabulary

Food

1 Listen and repeat.

apples bananas eggs French fries hamburgers mangoes pizzas potatoes sausages strawberries tomatoes

Take note!

Plural nouns

- Regular: add -s
apple → apples
- Ending in a vowel: add -es
mango → mangoes
- Ending in -y: -y, add -ies
strawberry → strawberries

2 Fill in the blanks with food words from exercise 1. Then listen and check.

- A: Oh yuck! What are those? They look like fingers.
B: Don't be silly! They're sausages.
- A: I'm making a fruit salad. Are there any apples?
B: Yes, there are. There are bananas, mangoes, and _____, too.
- A: I'm making an omelet. Are there any _____?
B: Yes, there are.
- A: Let's go to the Italian restaurant.
B: Great idea! We can order _____.
- A: I'm making French fries. Are there any _____?
B: Yes, there are.
- A: Do you like fast food restaurants?
B: I love them! I always have _____ and French fries.

3 Ask and answer about the food in exercise 1.

Student A: Do you like eggs?
Student B: Yuck! No, I don't. Do you like apples?
Student A: Yes, I do. I love apples.

OBJECTIVES

- food
- there is / there are + countable and uncountable nouns
- food and drink
- fast food
- favorite food
- making requests
- a report about a favorite meal

Puzzle page 45, puzzle 1

