

Past Tense Participial Phrase - Practice #1

Directions:

1. In the first box, type in the COMPLETE past tense participial phrase from each sentence.
2. In the second box, type in the word that is being modified by the past tense participial phrase.
3. Carefully check your spelling before submission. There will be no do-overs because of misspelling.

1. Frustrated by the complexity of the puzzle, the child threw the pieces on the ground.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------

2. The expensive vase, broken in the last earthquake, was from Uncle Jack's travels to China.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------

3. That poem, memorized by many generations of students, is my favorite.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------

4. The first contestant, surprised by my question, stumbled with his answer.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------

5. Martin, driven to baseball practice by his older brother, was late because they stopped for ice cream.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------

6. Jerry wrestled with the plumbing all day, but could not get the pipe, clogged with dog hair, to clear.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------

7. Repeated by the teacher several times, the instructions were easily followed.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------

8. My grandmother, respected greatly by the family, brought joy and wisdom to each family gathering.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------

9. Brought in before the storm, Meredith's plants were saved.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------

10. Weaving baskets is a popular hobby, loved by people of all ages.

PaPP:	What is it modifying:
-------	-----------------------