Role Play: Festival Invitation

Let's work in pairs.

- One student is a local inviting a foreign friend to Inti Raymi.
- The other student is the foreign friend who is curious about the festival.
- Follow the next schema

S1: Hey, would you like to come to the next Inti Raymi festival?

S2: Sure, what's it all about?

S1: It's a traditional festival where we honor the Sun God.

S2: Oh, really? That sounds nice. Can you tell me more about it?

S1: Sure! This tradition has been around since our ancestors' time, and now we celebrate it with a focus on our culture. You'll enjoy it—there's food and people in traditional clothes.

S2: Sounds great! I'd like to come. Can I bring my family and friends?

S1: Of course! Everyone's welcome to join.
