

ISOMERISM

Summarise the video by completing the flow chart using key words provided. Drag and drop the phrases and structures below into the flow chart.

| Keywords                                                                          |                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                            |                                                                                     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Stereoisomerism                                                                   | Positional isomers                                                                | Geometric isomers                                                                                                                       | Structural Isomerism                                                                                       | Functional group isomer                                                             |
| Optical isomers                                                                   | Chain isomers                                                                     | isomers with the same molecular formula and structural formulae but differ in the orientation of the atoms or groups of atoms in space. | Isomerism refers to molecules having the same molecular formula but different arrangements of their atoms. | isomers with the same molecular formula but a different structural formula.         |
|  |  |                                                        |                          |  |

Flow chart

