

Always ends the

It's that I hate

When it was me and you

How everyone's disposable

But every time I somebody new

Every time Isomebody new

It'sdéjà vu

I feel vulnerable

I swear sound the same

That it'll change

It's like theymy skin

And it will just like this

Every word they say sounds like him

Never endin' datin', breakin' up

And it goesthis

And when we spoke for

We'll get in your..... and you'll lean to kiss me

Well, did you ever mean it?

We'll for hours and lie on the backseat

How can wethat this is love

And then one random night whenchanges

When it goes this?

You won't reply and we'll go to strangers
