

Write carnivores, herbivores, omnivores, decomposers or scavengers.

a. _____ kill
other animals and eat
the meat.

b. _____ eat
what they can find. They eat animals and plants.

c. _____ eat
the remains of dead or injured animals.

d. _____ get
nutrients and energy
from eating plants.

e. _____ are
tiny animals that break down dead plants and animals.

Complete the texts. Then, match them to the photos.

offspring
hatch

ovoviviparous
viviparous

oviparous
mother's womb

eggs

- a. Birds, fish, reptiles and amphibians are _____ animals.
They lay eggs. The eggs _____ into new offspring.
- b. Most mammals, like cats and horses, are _____.
The babies develop inside their _____. Live offspring are born. They drink their mother's milk.
- c. _____ animals, like some reptiles and amphibians, and some sharks, do not lay _____. The babies develop inside the mother's body and hatch inside. Then, the mother gives birth to live _____.

