

SHORT AGREEMENTS USING "NEITHER / NOR" AND "SO"

To agree with an affirmative statement we use :

So + auxiliary verb / modal verb + subject

Examples:

- "Sarah has bought a new jacket."
- "So has Susan."
- "We are glad you are here."
- "So am I."

To agree with a negative statement we use :

Neither / Nor + auxiliary verb / modal verb + subject

Examples:

- "We don't like the hotel."
- "Neither / Nor do I."
- "They haven't got any money."
- "Neither / Nor have we."

Choose the correct option for each statement.

1 My Little brother likes to get up early.

So does mine.

So my brother does.

2 Peter doesn't know how to swim.

So do I.

Neither do I.

3 I can't sleep with the TV on.

Neither can I.

So can't I.

4 The children should ask permission.

So do you.

So should you.

5 They haven't got their parcel yet.

Nor have we.

Nor we have.

6 We are not going to the party.

So am I.

Neither am I.

7 She will appear in the school play.

So will I.

So am I.

8 They had lunch at a restaurant yesterday.

So had we.

So did we.

9 We were studying when the lights went out.

So did we.

So was I.

10 We didn't do any homework last week.

Nor did Jane.

So did Jane.