

Watch the video, read after the speaker and answer the following questions.

Q1: Did you pause and think about the sentence stress when the speakers ask you to?

Yes No

Q2: Did you read after the speaker and pay special attention to the sentence stress?

Yes No

Q3: Pronouncing sentence stress correctly will improve your English pronunciation and listening skills.

Yes No

Q4: Content words are typically stressed, while grammar words are generally not.

Yes No

Q5: Grammar words give you the meaning of the sentence.

Yes No

Q6: Nouns, verbs, adjectives and adverbs are content words.

Yes No

Q7: When pronouncing stressed words, we read them strongly and more clearly.

Yes No

Q8: When pronouncing stressed words, we read them in a low volume.

Yes No

Q9: When pronouncing unstressed words, we read them fast.

Yes No

Q10: Sentence stress follow strict rules. The stressed words are always fixed.

Yes No