MUSIC and ARTS 4

LET'S REVIEW!

"My Cultural Identity and My Province"

I. Reach each question carefully. Choose the correct answer.

1. Which traditional music practice in the Philippines often involves a group of stringed instruments?

a. Harana
b. Choir
c. Musikong Bumbong
d. Rondalla

2. Which of the following best represents the use of lines, shapes, and textures in Bulacan crafts?

a. Random and unstructured designs
b. Detailed and meaningful patterns
c. Simple and plain surfaces
d. Abstract and confusing images

3. Which element of art refers to the qualities of a surface?

a. Texture
b. Value
c. Color
d. Harmony

4. Which of the following best describes the dynamics in music?

a. Speed
b. Pitch
c. Loudness/Softness
d. Quality

5. Which of the following instruments belongs to the string family and is commonly used in a Bulakenyo culture called "Harana"?

a. Guitar
b. Drum
c. Piccolo
d. Trumpet

6. Which principle of design refers to the size relationship of parts to a whole and to one another?

a. Balance
b. Proportion
c. Scale
d. Harmony

7. What is the importance of using local materials and techniques in Bulakenyo crafts?

a. It makes the craft more expensive
b. It preserves cultural heritage
c. It looks more modern
d. It is easier to make

8. What is the term used for the quality of sound that distinguishes different types of sound production, such as voices or musical instruments?

a. Softness
b. Pitch
c. Loudness
d. Timbre

LIVEWORKSHEETS

9. Which Filipino traditional music ensemble is composed of different types of bamboo instruments?

a. Rondalla
b. Harana
c. Musikong Bumbong
d. Banda

10. What principle of design is focused on the distribution of visual weight in an artwork?

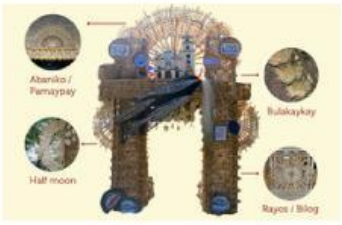

a. balance
b. contrast
c. unity
d. rhythm

II. Match the following Bulakenyo crafts with their descriptions.

a. this is called "Singkaban". It uses straight and curve lines to show creativity of their bamboo decorations.

b. In this "Pabalat" uses different shapes to show Bulakenyo design. It shows how proud we are of our province.

c. This drawing used different shading techniques to show texture. This helps with illusion and shows more creativity.

d. This painting shows different shapes and patterns to produce a creative painting that represents Bulacan.

e. This mixed-media artwork used denim materials to make textures which are related to how the items are seen in real life.

LIVEWORKSHEETS