

1. Phrasal verbs. Translate.

Come across	Put on	Stop off
Come back	Put up	Take away
Get off	Set off	Take off
Get on	Take away	Turn back
Look forward to		Take off

2. Choose the adequate phrasal verb

- a. We always stop off / cut down on / put up / come across to visit grandma on Saturdays
- b. If you cannot find a hotel, we will take you off / take up / put you on / put you up
- c. When I was a child, I loved seeing planes getting off / giving up / coming across / taking off
- d. Next stop is Oxford Circus. You 'll have to get on / cut down on / get over / get off there
- e. I'm putting up / putting off / looking forward to / building up seeing you again!
- f. When I was tidying my room, I built up / took up / came back / came across some old pictures
- g. The Titanic sorted out / set off / gave up / took away from Southampton

3. Write the phrasal verbs for these definitions

- a. Start a journey _____
- b. Let somebody stay in your home _____
- c. Make a short visit to a place during a journey _____
- d. Find something by accident when you're not looking for it _____
- e. When a plane leaves the airport _____

4. Choose the correct alternative

- a. There was a lot of snow on the road and the bus was forced to.....
a. Take off b.get on c.turn back
- b. When I was in the second-hand bookshop, I.....a book I'd been trying to find for years.
a.Put on b.came across c.put up
- c. We're driving from London to Scotland, but we're going to.....in Liverpool for one night.
a.put on b.stop off c.set off
- d. The plane.....in ten minutes. Hurry up!
a.Takes off b.gets off c.gets on
- e. We want to.....for the station at two o'clock a.Put up b.get on c.set off

EXTRA !!

Look at these phrasal verbs and their definitions. Fill in the gaps with the correct phrasal verbs so that the text makes sense. (Keep in mind that the main verb changes according to the time and function of the sentence, e.g. drop off in a past passive structure is I was dropped off)

Drop off - to take someone to a place and leave them there

Check in - to register at a hotel

Check out - to leave and pay for your stay at a hotel

Pick up - to go and fetch someone from a place and take them somewhere else

Set out - to start a journey

Take off - when a plane leaves and begins to fly

Get in - when a plane arrives on an airport

Get away - to leave to go somewhere for a break or holiday

Get on - to climb on board

Speed up - to increase speed

Look around - to explore what is near you, in your area

Hurry up - to rush and not waste time

Go back - to go the place someone is leaving from to say goodbye

See off - to go the place someone is leaving from to say goodbye

Look forward - to look forward to something that is going to happen in the future

Summer break in the USA

The day I left for the USA my family (1)____ me _____. We had breakfast on the airport but we had to (2)____ so that I wouldn't miss my flight. It was a teary goodbye, but I was (3)____ to new experiences in the USA. After I (4)____ the plane I made myself comfortable and sent a few last minute goodbye text messages. I thought of how much I wanted this holiday and that I just needed to (5)____ from it all. A short while later the pilot announced that all electronics were to be switched off, for we were preparing to (6)_____. As the plane was (7)____ on the runway I sat back and took pleasure in the brute force and strength of the momentum the plane was creating to lift itself up from the ground.

When our plane (8)____ at JFK Airport in New York there was already a taxi waiting to (9)____ me _____. The taxi (10)____ me ____ at the Holiday Inn where I would meet up with my friends. After I (11)____ to the hotel we all went to Time Square, where we (12)____ for the rest of the day. The next day we got up in the early hours of the morning and did some sightseeing. That night we were exhausted and went to bed early. The next morning we (13)____ after breakfast, rented a car and (14)____ on a cross-country road trip. It would be another 3 months before I would (15)____ home.

1.....	2.....	3.....	4.....
5.....	6.....	7.....	8.....
9.....	10.....	11.....	12.....
13.....	14.....	15.....	