

Unit I – Reading : A Window to the World

Task I – Listen to the story below.

There are several words and phrases that are highlighted in the story.

organic	enormous	stretched out	effective
devastated	took out	rose up	glanced

Task 2 – Drag and drop the words or phrases in the passage to the meanings given below.

organic	enormous	stretched out	effective
devastated	took out	rose up	glanced

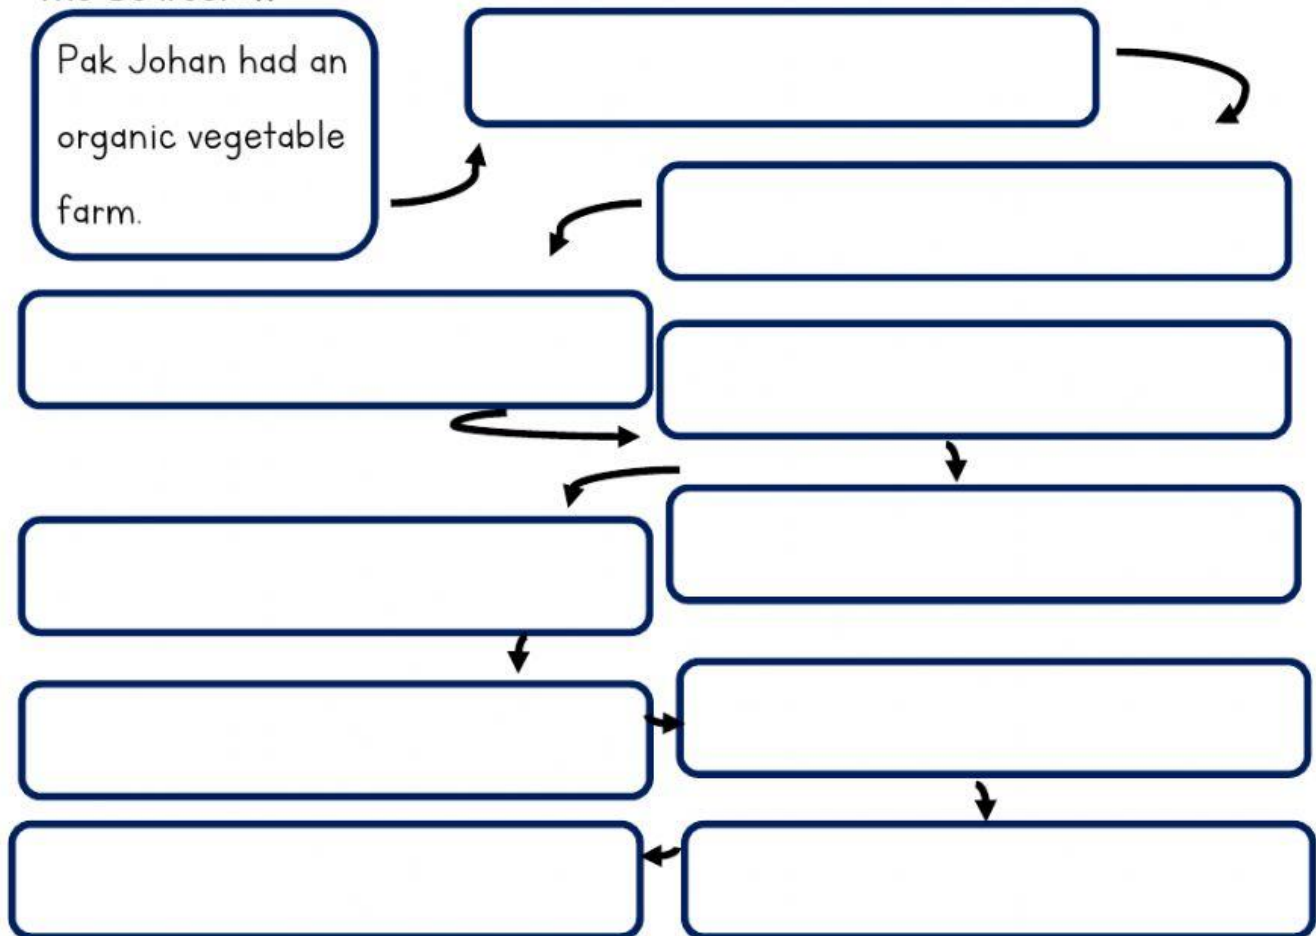

Meaning	Words or phrases
1) extremely large
2) to look quickly at somebody or something
3) to put out a long arm
4) something produced without using artificial chemicals.
5) to feel very shocked and sad
6) producing a successful result
7) to remove it from its place
8) an upward movement

Task 3 – Complete the flow map below.

Man and Lan, Pak Johan's neighbours, were jealous of his success.	The next day, Pak Johan felt devastated because his scarecrow was missing and his greens were eaten.
In fear, they saw the headless scarecrow's body.	One night, they stole the scarecrow and hid it.
He could grow good greens because of his scary scarecrow.	Man saw the scarecrow getting closer and it had a new head which looked like ...
At midnight, the brothers heard scratching and clawing sounds at their door.	That night, Man smashed the scarecrow's head and buried it.
It caught Lan's neck and he shouted for help, but Man ran away.

The Scarecrow

Task 4 – Predict the ending.

How do you think the story ended? Write your answer below. Begin your answer with "I think at the end of the story,"

- THE END -