

Chapter 27

Right to Write

Literature is of two types : written and oral. Oral literature includes ballads, myth, jokes, folktales and fables; whereas written source has drama, novel, poetry and non-fiction literature. Read the description and write the name of the literature from the help card :

1. A _____ is a story with a moral or a lesson. It often has animal characters.

2. _____ stories examine how science and technology affect the world. The books often involve fantasy inventions that may be reality in the future.

3. _____ novels are often set in world much different from our own and usually include magic, sorcery and mythical creatures.

4. A _____ is a story that has been handed down over generations and is believed to be based on history. The hero of this story is usually a human.

5. An _____ is the story of a person's life written or told by that person.

6. A _____ is a traditional story that a particular culture or group once accepted as sacred and true. It may center on a god or supernatural being.

7. A _____ is a story that has been passed down, usually orally, within a culture. It is based on superstition and features supernatural characters.

8. A _____ is the story of a person's life written or told by another person.

Help Card

autobiography, biography, fantasy, folktale, legend, fable, myth, science fiction

LIVEWORKSHEETS