

Read the description and write 'T' for true and 'F' for false statements :

1. A shark can have as many as 50 rows of teeth.
2. A glow worm's light can be seen 90 m away.
3. Snails live only on land.
4. Dogfish can be trained to bark.
5. There is a small kind of African antelope called the dik-dik.
6. The baby tapir has a coat of spots and stripes till it is eight months old. After that, the coats become plain.
7. Flamingoes are the only water birds that live alone.
8. An anteater can catch only one ant at a time with its tongue.
9. Anacondas can grow up to 15 meters in length.
10. The chameleon can look in two different directions at the same time.
11. Chimpanzees usually sleep in nests that are built on trees.
12. The Tasmanian Devil gets its name because of its blood-curdling nocturnal screams.

☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
