

Animal Quiz

Read the description and write 'T' for true and 'F' for false statements :

- 1. A shark can have as many as 50 rows of teeth.
- 2. A glow worm's light can be seen 90 m away.
- 3. Snails live only on land.
- 4. Dogfish can be trained to bark.
- 5. There is a small kind of African antelope called the dik-dik.
- 6. The baby tapir has a coat of spots and stripes till it is eight months old. After that, the coats become plain.
- 7. Flamingoes are the only water birds that live alone.
- 8. An anteater can catch only one ant at a time with its tongue.
- 9. Anacondas can grow up to 15 meters in length.
- 10. The chameleon can look in two different directions at the same time.
- 11. Chimpanzees usually sleep in nests that are built on trees.
- 12. The Tasmanian Devil gets its name because of its blood-curdling nocturnal screams.

