

Procedure Text

Procedure text

is a type of text that is written to explain how to do something.

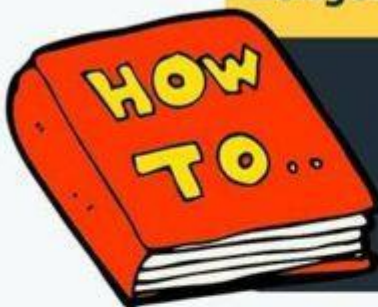

Structure:

Goal, material/ingredients, steps.

Language features:

Simple present tense, imperative sentences, connectives, adverb.

Example procedure text :

How to bake chocolate chips
Check the complete article at our website

