It's Sunday. My parents visit₁ my sister, Maggie, in London. She has a new apartment. They travel to London by train. The train is crowded₂. A man on the train asked₃ their tickets. They arrived₄ in London in the afternoon. They saw₅ a police officer where the apartment is, then they walked₆ to it. They see my sister, and they're happy.

A Read the story quickly. Answer the question.

Why did Wendy's great grandma go to New York?

My Grandma's Grandparents

"How did your grandparents meet, Grandma?" asks Wendy.

"My Grandpa Charles and Grandma Betty were neighbors and then classmates," says Grandma.

"In New York?" asks Wendy.

"Oh, no, Wendy. They lived in England," says Grandma. "When Grandpa Charles was 20, he traveled to New York, but Grandma Betty stayed in England. They mailed letters to each other, but the letters arrived one month later! Grandma Betty missed Grandpa Charles, so she traveled from England by ship, and she arrived in New York after seven days. The trip was awful."

"Wow! Now people often fly between England and New York, and they get there on the same day!" says Wendy.

Writing

A Read about how people traveled long ago and how they travel now.

Some people traveled from New York to New Jersey by horse long ago. Sometimes it was hot or cold outside. It was difficult in the rain and snow. It was slow, too. Now people travel by car. It's easy and fast.

B Think about traveling to a place 100 years ago and traveling to that place now. Answer the questions.

How did people travel long ago? _____

How was the trip long ago? _____

How do people travel now? _____

How is the trip now? _____

C Now write about traveling to that place long ago and now.
