

BEST WORST WEEKEND EVER/ EPISODE 1 VOCABULARY

1. If you live in a _____ family, you may have a stepsister or a stepbrother.
2. Our teacher had a very important _____ about the spring exam.
3. If you want to succeed in life, you should _____ shortcuts.
4. Mark disappeared _____ after the party, so everyone got worried.
5. I got a _____ in my thigh after a demanding workout.
6. Stop _____ off and take it seriously. It's high time you got mature.
7. Every mistake is an _____ to learn something new.
8. I just _____ this phone two days ago and it's broken already.
9. I could _____ you yelling at me but I won't put up with this silence.
10. She's worked her _____ and now you don't want to eat anything?!
11. That coincidence was so _____ I can't stop laughing!
12. Now you've got the chance to _____ yourself and show us what you've got.
13. This little _____ kicked my ankle! I can't believe it!
14. Unfortunately, I didn't see the spoiler _____ and read the whole plot of the book.
15. Stop being such a smarty _____ and explain it to me in a simple way.
16. Could you please _____ me what I was supposed to buy?
17. Margaret managed to _____ the payment system and she got the service for free.
18. The party _____ off in the evening and finished in the morning next day.
19. I don't have this _____ of the magazine. Can I borrow it?
20. This book is rather _____, so I'd recommend it to people who love literature.