

Listening to an interview

🔊 Listen to a conversation between a miner and an interviewer. Choose the correct answers:

1. What is the conversation about?
 - A. The man's mining experience
 - B. The positions available at the company
 - C. The types of metals the company mines
 - D. The mines the man will be assigned to
2. What is true of the man?
 - A. He expects to mine minerals at the new company
 - B. He knows the process of mining steel very well
 - C. His first job was mining precious metals
 - D. He mined coal at a previous job.

🔊 Listen again and complete the conversation:

Interviewer: Thanks for today.

Miner: My pleasure. I'm very in the position.

Interviewer: Now, you worked at Jackson before?

Miner: I did. My group mined metals and

Interviewer: I see. But this company mines We need someone with that experience.

Miner: Yes, of course. I mined coal at my first job.

Interviewer: hear it. When was that?

Miner: It was about five years ago. But I remember the process very well.