

MODAL VERBS

TASK: Cut and match the modals verbs with their rules. Paste.

MUST

MUSTN'T

HAVE TO

CAN

CAN'T

DON'T HAVE TO

SHOULD / SHOULDN'T

We use it when something is not permitted.

We use it when something is not a rule or an obligation (not necessary).

We use it when we have the possibility of doing, or permission to do, something.

We use it when we don't have permission and/or the possibility

We use it when something is a rule or absolutely necessary. It expresses general obligations.

We use it when something is a rule or absolutely necessary. It is used for specific obligations.

We use it to give somebody advice and to say what is or isn't the right thing to do.