

The Picnic

It was a beautiful spring Sunday.

My mother brought a picnic basket with sandwiches and muffins.

My dad brought homemade ice-tea.

We all got into the car and drove to grandpa's fields.

My mother spread a huge blanket on the grass, under a tree.

My brother and I helped her unpack the snacks.

Grandpa brought us some freshly picked fruit.

We enjoyed the birds chirping and butterflies everywhere.

We all had lots of fun spending the day together!
