Identify the color of the word (Use lowercase letters)

I was walking by the circus when I saw a snake slither by. It reminded me of a science class where we learned about fossils and muscles. I decided to recycle my old science magazines. At home, I opened the ceiling compartment to find my city map. The scene from my window was serene. I saw a cylinder, likely from a recent construction. I dismissed the thought and focused on my basis for exploration.
