

1. Complete the conversation, use the missing comparative forms.

Anna: Hi, Mark! What are you wearing for your job interview?

Mark: Hi, Anna! I'm not sure. Should I wear a suit or something _____(casual)?

Anna: I think a suit is better. It looks _____(formal) and stylish.

Mark: Good idea. I only have two. Black or blue?

Anna: The blue suit is _____(nice) and a bit more modern.

Mark: Okay, I'll go with the blue one. What about the tie? Should I wear one?

Anna: Yes, a tie would be good. Maybe a blue or black tie to match the suit.

Mark: Should I wear a belt with the suit?

Anna: Yes, it will make the outfit look _____(good). Make sure it matches your shoes.

Mark: Great! What about shoes? Should I go for something _____(comfortable) or stylish?

Anna: Try to find shoes that are both.

Mark: Thanks, Anna! I feel _____(confident) about my outfit now.

2. Check the answers.

3. Practice the conversation with your partners. Take turns and switch roles. Focus on reading fluently and naturally.