When he got back home he said, "Now I have 100 acorns. I have enough for winter." Sammy counted the acorns and saw that 10 were missing! The next day, another 20 acorns were missing, and the next day, another 15 acorns were missing!

Sammy ran to Lazy Larry's house. "Someone stole my acorns! I'm not happy!" "Really?" said Larry. "That's awful!". Sammy looked around Lazy Larry's house and saw acorns all over. He counted 45 acorns!
