It's our third day in Singapore – what an incredible place! The climate is so hot, and when it rains it's like being in a warm shower. It rained on our second day and we just stood out in it. It was so strange, but we did enjoy it. We were completely dry in about 15 minutes afterwards!

We went shopping yesterday down the main street, at the Orchard Road shopping centre. There are so many shops and cafés and they are all air-conditioned. Singapore is such a crowded place, at some points you can't walk easily along the pavements.

Last night was such an unforgettable experience. My dad and I went to the Singapore Grand Prix as his birthday surprise and I loved it – but it was so noisy! The race takes place at night around the city, which means there is a really special atmosphere.

Tomorrow we are going to see the Marina Sands Hotel, which looks like a ship in the sky. Then we're going to Sentosa Island for a ride on the cable car and a visit to the aquarium. I can't wait. On our final day we'll visit the zoo, which people say is absolutely great. I do love zoos! I'll write more next time.
