A Day at the Hotel

Hi, I'm John. I'm on vacation in a new city. I booked a double room at a nice hotel downtown. When I arrived, I went to the front desk to check in. The bellboy helped me with my suitcase.
I asked the receptionist for a brochure with information about sightseeing. She gave me one with a map of the city. I'm going to visit the museum and the park tomorrow.
After checking in, I went to my room. It was a nice, big room with a comfortable bed. I unpacked my suitcase and decided to take a nap.
When I woke up, I went to the hotel restaurant for dinner. The food was delicious! After dinner, I went for a walk around the city.
Tomorrow, I'll check out of the hotel and start my journey home. I had a great time here!

After carefully reading the previous lecture, answer the questions.

- What did John ask the receptionist for?

a) a brochure with information about sightseeing
b) a brochure with information about fishing
c) a new key for the room

- What kind of room did John book?

a) a new room
b) a double room
c) a single room

- What did John do after checking in?

a) He went to his room
b) He went sightseeing
c) He went out to eat

- Who helped John with his suitcase?

a) The bellboy
b) The manager
c) His son

- When will John check out of the hotel?

a) The same day
b) Next monday
c) The following day

LIVEWORKSHEETS