

1- Read the text about Dibu Martinez.

Hello, My name is Emiliano Martinez but everyone calls me "Dibu". I'm an Argentinian professional footballer and I play as a goalkeeper for Premier League Club Aston Villa and the Argentina national team.

Every day I get up early in the morning and I have breakfast with my family: a cup of coffee, some toast with jam and cheese and a bowl of fresh fruit. Then I get dressed and I drive to the club where I start training till midday.

I don't eat at home, I always have lunch at the club canteen with my teammates and then I do different activities. I do yoga and Pilates three times a week.

After that I drive home, I have a shower and I relax. I like having mates with my wife and playing games with my children. Do you exercise? What do you do in your free time?

My wife loves healthy food so she doesn't order food, she usually cooks our meals. We often have dinner at about eight o'clock. Then we watch T.V. or make video calls with our relatives in Argentina. I always go to bed early.

Today it's a holiday in London. I'm not training. I'm having a barbecue with some friends. My wife is making a chocolate cake and my children are playing outside. It's great fun.
